New Department Head Appointed

The Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics will welcome a new department head, Dr. Octavio A. Ramírez, effective June 1, 2008. Since 2003, Dr. Ramírez has led the Department of Agricultural Economics and Agricultural Business at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, New Mexico. Before that, he served as an associate professor of agricultural and applied economics at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas.

Dr. Ramírez holds bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees in food and resource economics from the University of Florida. He has published numerous papers in important journals of his discipline and in many other prestigious disciplinary and interdisciplinary journals edited in the United States, Europe and Latin America. He has taught a variety of undergraduate and graduate level courses in econometrics and quantitative methods and directed the research of numerous graduate students.

The faculty, staff and students in the Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics welcome Dr. Ramírez and the quality of leadership he will bring to the department.

ConnerConnects Banquet - April 15, 2008

The 7th annual ConnerConnects Banquet for Agricultural and Applied Economics students, alumni, faculty, staff and friends will be held Tuesday, April 15, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. at the State Botanical Gardens Visitors Center in Athens, Georgia. For the first time, the annual awards ceremony will celebrate accomplishments of both undergraduate and graduate students. The banquet offers a great opportunity to reconnect with old friends and to make new friends. The cost of the banquet is $25 per person ($10 per currently enrolled student).

Please see the registration form in this mailing for opportunities to attend or pay for students to attend the banquet. For additional information, please contact Audrey Hudson at 706-542-0763 or email ahl@uga.edu.

Conner Hall Centennial Celebration - April 11, 2008

The 100th birthday of Conner Hall will be commemorated on April 11, 2008 from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. on the front lawn of the building. The event will include the unveiling of a Conner Hall original watercolor by Athens artist Jill Leite. Alumni, friends and special guests of UGA College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences will gather to rededicate the building that has long served as the administrative headquarters for the college.

The building was erected in 1908 and named Conner Hall in 1909 in honor of Georgia State Representative James T. Conner of Bartow County who introduced the 1906 bill which led to the creation of the Georgia State College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts and the construction of the building. Conner Hall was rededicated in 1976 following an extensive renovation project.

Change in Newsletter Delivery

Due to the high cost of mailing the Alumni Newsletters through the U.S. Postal Service, the Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics is phasing out the physical mailing of the newsletters. We will begin implementing the practice of delivering our newsletters through email once we have acquired the email addresses of our alumni. Of course we realize that some of you who do not have access to computers will still want your newsletters mailed to you, and we will continue to mail your newsletters if you let us know that is your preference. We ask that each of you send your email address to aaecnews@uga.edu and in the subject line please enter "Newsletter" so that we can begin compiling our email list. In addition, we will continue to post the newsletter on the web at <http://www.caes.uga.edu/departments/agecon/newsletters/newsletters.html>.

If you do not have access to a computer and prefer to have your newsletter mailed to you, please fill out the form on the following page and return it to Audrey Hudson, Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics, UGA, 303 Conner Hall, Athens, GA 30602-7509.

Invitation to Support the Department

Your tax deductible contributions to the Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics programs help to ensure the continued quality educational experiences that are an integral part of student life in the department. Your contributions will aid the department in providing scholarships and resources for students to travel and compete in professional programs, develop leadership skills and generally improve the department's teaching programs. Additional support is needed for the Improvement Fund, as well as endowments for scholarships, leadership awards, and a distinguished professorship. Many employers will match employee contributions to their alma maters. Please check with your company to see if it will match your contributions to the department.

Please consider making an investment in future economic leaders by supporting our educational programs. Checks should be made payable to the Arch Foundation and mailed to 301 Conner Hall, University of Georgia, Athens, GA 30602-7509. Please see the following page to select the funds you want to support.
